

2010 AIS SIGPrag Meeting at ICIS in St. Louis, Dec 12, 2010

09:00 – 09:45 Introduction and Discussion on Foundations of Pragmatist IS Research
Mark Aakhus, Pär J. Ågerfalk, Mikael Lind

09:45 – 10:45 Paper Session I
Chair: Rodney Clarke

- “Data Matters: An Analysis of Data Practices in IS Research” by Wietske van Osch and Michel Avital
- “Understanding Multi-Organizational Collaboration Using Pragmatic Foundations” by Sandra Haraldson

10:45 – 11:15 Coffee Break

11:15 – 12:00 Paper Session II
Chair: Mikael Lind

- “How Does the Lens of Pragmatism Help in Understanding, Using, or Improving Work System Theory?” by Steven Alter

12:00 – 13:30 Lunch

13:30 – 14:30 Invited Session on “Publishing pragmatist research in top-tier IS journals: Views from the trenches at JAIS and MISQ”

Host: Mark Aakhus

Participants:

- Kalle Lyytinen, former Editor-in-Chief of Journal of the AIS
- Owen Erikson, co-author of “Rethinking the Meaning of Identifiers in Information Infrastructures”, recently published in Journal of the AIS
- Carol Saunders, former Editor-in-Chief of MIS Quarterly
- Matti Rossi, co-author of “Action Design Research”, to appear in MIS Quarterly

14:30 – 15:30 Paper Session III
Chair: Jeff Nickerson

- “Designing Collaborative Infrastructures to Support Distributed Work” by Uri Gal and Sean Hansen
- “The Emergence of Information Systems: A Communication-Based Theory” by Roland Holten and Christoph Rosenkranz

15:30 – 16:00 SIGPrag Business Meeting (with refreshments)

- See separate agenda